NEWSPAPER HISTORY
The Rockland Gazette was established in 1846. In 1874 the Courier was established and consolidated with the Gazette in 1882. The Free Press was established in 1885, and in 1891 changed its name to the Tribune. These papers consolidated March 15, 1897.

HAS LEASED ROOMS

Rockland Commercial College to be Located in Spofford-Spear Block.

Mrs. Lena K. Sargent, proprietor of the New Rockland Commercial College, has leased the quarters in the Spofford-Spear block, corner of Main and School streets, recently vacated by Dr. Stahl, and announces that the college will open Wednesday, Sept. 15. The school will have accommodations for 30 students, and 19 are already registered.

Because of her long connection with Rockland High School Mrs. Sargent needs no introduction locally but for the benefit of The Courier-Gazette's readers in distant places a brief word may not come amiss. Mrs. Sargent, who is the wife of a well known traveling salesman, E. L. Sargent, was born in Sherman, Aroostook County, and graduated from the High School of that town. She subsequently attended Shaw Business College in Bangor and did special work at Columbia and Simmons.

She was a member of the Shaw Business College faculty three years and then, as an office employee of the Rockland Co. in Bangor, she had actual business experience.

Mrs. Sargent had charge of the commercial department of Milo High School three and Rockland High School seven years. Her success has attracted country-wide attention, as attested by letters which she has received from distant States asking how she got such wonderful results. The New Rockland Commercial College will prosper under her leadership. An evening school will also be conducted.

"ENTER MADAME"

Adelyn Bushnell Plays In Strong Cast With Thomas-ton Amateurs.

Great interest is aroused in the production of "Enter Madame," which Miss Adelyn Bushnell is staging at Watts hall, Thomaston, Thursday evening, Aug. 19, for the benefit of the Thomaston Public Library. This sparkling comedy, with a strong romantic and sympathetic interest, a great New York success of a few seasons ago, centers around a particularly brilliant part, that of a great Italian opera singer, Madame Lisa Della Robbia. This part, which Miss Bushnell has played with great success in stock, offers an extraordinary variety of acting opportunities; for Lisa is the typical temperamental prima donna, appearing now a wilful spoiled child, now a witty and far-seeing schemer, and again a woman of deep and sincere emotion, but always a creature of charm and unexpectedness. Miss Bushnell has the great advantage of being supported in the hardly less important part of Gerald by her husband, Jerry Bradford, who has played the same role for an entire season with the famous Henrietta Crossman. Around these two have been gathered under Miss Bushnell's direction an exceptionally strong group of experienced amateurs, as may be seen by the following cast:

Gerald Fitzgerald, Madame's husband Mrs. Pura Preston, a widow Ruth R. Brackett William Manning John Fitzgerald, his son John Creighton Aline Chalmers, John's fiancée Ada B. Beattie The Doctor, her personal physician Evelyn Peaslee Miss Smith, her secretary Betty Phillips Archimede, her chef Alfred Strout Madame Lisa Della Robbia Adelyn Bushnell

CYRUS CURTIS SPOKE

A history of his ownership of the Saturday Evening Post was the subject of a most interesting and informal talk before the Belfast Rotary Club at its noonday luncheon Monday, by Cyrus H. K. Curtis, the owner. Mr. Curtis went to Belfast on his yacht Lydonia from Camden, where he is summering and had on board Mrs. Curtis and friends, including former Ambassador David Jayne Hill, who is also spending the season at Camden. They were given a sight-seeing tour of Belfast and its environs by the former president of the Rotary Club, Lynwood B. Thompson, and many citizens went down to the waterfront to see the Lydonia, one of the largest yachts ever to enter the harbor.

PICKING THE BEST TEAM

Out of the Maine Coast League—What Three Well Known Fans Say on This Subject.

If you were going to select the strongest possible team from the Maine Coast League how would you go about it? Knowing that there is always a strong interest among the fans on this subject the sporting editor of The Courier-Gazette submitted this query to three representative sportsmen in the circuit—A. C. McLoon of Rockland, who 25 years ago was one of the star outfielders in the Knox County League; Gilbert Patten of Camden, writer of sporting stories, and a lifelong patron of baseball; and Ralph Darby of Belfast, who is the business executive of the Belfast team, and an enthusiastic booster of legitimate sport. They submitted the following selections:

McLoon's Teams
First Team Second Team
Chamard c Cannon
Aube p Rising
Jordan 1b Wotton
Reed 2b Kiley
Marr 3b Paiement
Cole ss Small
Masciadri lf Murphy
French cf Weston
Daker rf Nangan

Patten's Teams
First Team Second Team
Chamard c Curran
Aube p Aube
McGowan 1b Jordan
Reed 2b Kiley
Marr 3b Paiement
Small ss Cole
Masciadri lf Nangan
Daker cf French
Murphy rf Ogier

Darby's Teams
First Team Second Team
Chamard c Hedderic
Flinn p Trainor
McGowan 1b Jordan
Reed 2b Kiley
Paiement 3b Marr
Cole ss Small
Masciadri lf Murphy
Daker cf French
Weston rf Nangan

The sporting editor will be very glad to hear from other fans who have views on the subject of an All-League team, especially those loyal patrons who come so regularly from Union, Hope, Rockport, Warren and Thomaston.

Rising, Flinn and Carr for the first team, and Aube, Trainor and Moore for the second team. The first pitcher named in each instance was named in his teams as above indicated.

The selections are unanimous as to catcher, young Chamard of Rockland being chosen. His stickwork has probably helped make him the popular choice. He is leading the league at the present time.

Rising and Aube each get a vote for first choice as pitcher, and each is named as a second choice. Mr. Darby does not name either, but pins his faith in Flinn (first) and Trainor (second).

McGowan of Belfast gets two votes for first baseman, the third going to Jordan of Camden. Wotton and Jordan are each named for the second team in each instance.

Reed of Rockland is also the unanimous choice for second base with Kiley selected for the second team in each instance.

Marr of Camden gets two of the three votes for third baseman, the other choice being Paiement of Belfast.

Cole of Rockland and Small of Belfast are the contenders for shortstop honors, the former having two of the three votes and being named for the second team by the other.

The vote is also unanimously in favor of Masciadri and Daker for the outfield. French also gets a vote for position on the first team. The other outfield candidates named for fielding positions are Murphy, Weston, Nangan and Ogier.

The sporting editor will be very glad to hear from other fans who have views on the subject of an All-League team, especially those loyal patrons who come so regularly from Union, Hope, Rockport, Warren and Thomaston.

FINE HOSS RACING

Large Crowd Saw Mary Aberdeen Take First Money.

The second race under the auspices of the Knox Trotting Park Association was held yesterday, and the amount of interest shown was a convincing indication that the Independence Day attendance was not a mere flash in the pan. Many were present yesterday who had not been in the park since a few courageous horsemen sought to rejuvenate it, and their delight with the progress which "has been made could not easily be expressed in words. The new grandstand was in commission for the first time, and practically every seat was occupied, but the majority of the patrons remained in their motor cars or along the side lines, where with craning necks they could watch every motion as the several closely matched fields came down the stretch.

Between heats Fred Carlini motored over the course with smoothing apparatus, and for this time at least everybody had to take Fred's dust. The judges' stand was occupied by a group of men who are doing much to keep the sport of kings on an even keel, and foremost among them must be mentioned State Senator H. C. Buzzell of Belfast, who officiated in the capacity of starter. Senator Buzzell has been a very sick man in recent months, and is just getting back on his feet after a third surgical operation and attack of double pneumonia, but if there was anything in the world that would have a tendency to hasten his recovery it would be a horse race, and he welcomed the opportunity of helping the local boys out. Knox Trotting Park in its day has seen hundreds of races but it is doubtful if any crowd there ever saw a card of three events disposed of more expeditiously. Still wonder that this popular Waldo County politician is so much in demand this season as a starter.

For judges there were Ray Hall of Lismariscotta and M. Frank Donohue and Alex. McDonald of Rockland, while the watches were held by Harold B. Burgess of Rockland, A. E. Boggs of Waldoboro and J. Crosby Hobbs of Camden. Keen followers of the sport those six men, and thoroughly competent to handle a horse race.

Those who like to see split heat races may have been disappointed yesterday, but in two of the events the competition was so close that nobody dared breathe freely until the field had passed the judges' stand on the home stretch.

P. L. Hupper came all the way from Stockton Springs to capture that free-for-all, and he did it with the speedy bay gelding Justice Bell, Kelley up. George W. Bacheider's bay gelding Flying Nimbus was not many noses behind. A new track and some watches caught it a fraction record of 2:15 1/4. The purse was $100.00.

The friends of Frank Butler were tickled when he copied first money in the 2:18 class, driving Mary Aberdeen. The third heat in this race was a positive thriller, for John Opp chased the mare the entire mile, threatening a dozen times to take the pole. It was an 18 class, all right, each heat bearing that number, plus a small fraction. The boys were all glad to see "Franny" Simmons in the sulky, and they did not fail to admire the ease with which he made Dr. Randall's bay mare Frisco Belle an easy winner in straight heats. Second money went to the Boston gelding Bill Ortolan, owned by W. E. Newbert. Mr. Newbert had meantime captured third money in the 2:18 class, with Dewey the Great.

A newcomer in the local racing field was Fred M. Blackington, who drove Helen Russell for third money in the 2:28 class. The turf fans approved the ready manner with which he handled the handsome bay. The by man was heard to lament the fact that sulky was no back supporters.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

BLACK SHEEP
From their folded mates they wander far,
Their ways seem harsh and wild;
They follow the back of a balding star,
Their paths are dream beguiled.

Yet happily they sought but a wider range,
Some loftier mountain-slope,
And little recked of the country strange
Beyond the gates of hope.

And happily a bell with a luring call
Summoned their feet to tread
Midst the cruel rocks, where the deep pitfall
And the lurking snare are spread.

Maybe, in spite of their timeless days
Of outcast liberty,
They're sick at heart for the homely ways
Where their gathered brothers be.

And oft a night, when the plains fall dark
And the hills loom large and dim,
For the Shepherd's voice they mutely hark,
And their souls go out to him.

Meanwhile, "Black sheep! black sheep!" we cry,
Safe in the inner fold;
And maybe they hear, and wonder why,
And marvel, out in the cold.

—Richard Burton.

A striking illustration of a condition of prosperity which our city in the present time is enjoying is supplied by the large number of new houses, some lately completed and others now under construction. For the chief part they are of small and snug design, and even at the prevailing prices of building material not burdensome as an investment to the young man moved by a high ambition to own a home and out of his thrift to pay for it. There is no higher joy that yielded by the preparation of plans for a house and the ensuing going ahead and building. To many of them, who are now the proud possessor of these new homes, sprinkled all over town and the city, will confirm this statement with enthusiasm. Two things in particular will fall to be recognized in this connection—the variety and architectural charm with which the recent houses are generally distinguished; and the important fact that the local loan and building association lends to this attractive phase of development.

Symphonic
PHONOGRAPH REPRODUCER

It is difficult to realize that this small unit, barely 2 1/4 inches in diameter, can actually revolutionize the old type phonograph, and enable it to bring out almost unbelievable reproduction results.

With it, your old type phonograph will reproduce the new electrical records with absolute fidelity, with resonant, strong volume and beautiful clarity, bringing out every detail and sound put into the original recording including the bass and high tones. The Symphonic Reproducer plays all records with a delightful sprightliness and verve, embracing the entire musical register, the entire chromatic scale, with a reproduction of color tones that will impart a new and distinguished character and richness to your old phonograph, no matter what make.

The Symphonic Reproducer is a marvel of scientific construction. Rigidly built and obtainable in either gold or nickel finish, it is the finest and permanent addition to the finest, most costly phonograph. The diaphragm is made of specially treated and tempered metal, graduated to the proper thickness, determined by exhaustive experiments to yield finest results.

The Symphonic Reproducer will fit all makes of phonographs.

LEGION MEN COMING

National Headquarters Will Be at Vinalhaven This Week—Local Men Invited

The national headquarters of the American Legion will be moved from Indianapolis to Vinalhaven for the three days ending this week. There will be a meeting of the France convention committee at A. T. Roberts' place at "Eastholm," at Calderwood's Neck. There will be the nine members of the committee which has in charge the transportation of the expected 25,000 members of the American Legion who will go to the convention in Paris in September 1927.

Accompanying the delegated committee to Vinalhaven will be National Commander John R. McGuire, National Adjutant James F. Barton, Mr. Williams, secretary to the commander, the national treasurer, the national publicity director, and the director of transportation, the commander of the Paris Post and others from national headquarters. The Vinalhaven Post of the American Legion will entertain the national committee and party at noon on Sunday. At which time members of Knox County Post are also invited to be guests of Mr. Roberts. It is planned to leave Rockland at 8:30 Sunday morning on the steamer Calista D. Morrill, and all ex-servicemen who would like to make this very enjoyable trip are requested to be at Tillson wharf sharply on the hour.

The visitors from National Headquarters are expected to pass through Rockland this afternoon about 3 o'clock.

"ON MY SET"

WJZ is the distinctive feature of radio entertainment these days, being strong in volume and very clear night and day. WBZ, WMA, WNAO, WPG and WMAF seem to be my other standbys, just now. If WEEI doesn't brace up soon I am going to stop my subscription. Two cute numbers which I listened to in a recent broadcast were "The Little Red Drum" and "Someone is Losing Susan."

There was excitement aplenty down Pleasant Beach way on a recent dark night. Rumors had been broadcast of a holdup on the road, and all comers were proceeding with care and direful expectations. A well-known young couple were humming along at a modest 40 miles when two figures loomed through the haze with a sharp command to halt. The young people were in a high powered car, doubling their speed, swept past the dim figures only to hear several shots in rapid succession. A still further accession of speed eliminated all possible pursuit and the adventure was ended. It may have been a bona fide hold up or it may have been enforcement officers, but in any event there are no such thrills up around Clinton road, Brookline.

The regular weekly fire drill was held at Empire Theatre Tuesday night. These drills at the Park and Empire more than proved their value in Saturday night's crucial test when the entire staff functioned smoothly as a well oiled machine.

The police were notified Monday that a Ford touring car owned by A. I. Moody of Waldoboro had been stolen. The car was recovered by Special Officer Linscott after the department had been notified by W. N. Benner, Jr., that a car had been abandoned on Kilm Hill.

The New England Telephone Co. recently appropriated $722,916 for improvement of the New England. An Associated Press dispatch says that $40,428 will be spent in Maine. Here's hoping the Rockland district gets its proportionate share.

The Belfast team plays at Community Park tomorrow night and the fans will again see in action the team which beat Rockland 2 to 1 Tuesday, and which had a stranglehold on Monday's night game when that famous fog shut in. The Frenchies are on the war-path.

Everybody who passes under Camden's new arch of welcome is complimenting the town's enterprise and excellent taste. The Courier-Gazette is of the opinion that the arch would be much more striking for those who enter from the Rockport side if that town's permission could be obtained for the purpose of cutting the roadside weeds for a distance of perhaps 100 feet. The symmetry of the arch is not so apparent until that is done. Meantime will somebody be thinking up something equally good for Rockland.

Evans Havey was before Judge Miller Tuesday, charged with the larceny of a rowboat belonging to Arthur S. Farley, a yachtman, who was cruising along the coast. The boat was taken at the Public Landing Monday night, and Havey had a fine time rowing around the harbor. He finally took refuge aboard a schooner, the captain of which promptly turned him over to the police when made acquainted with the facts. Special Officer Drinkwater figured in the arrest. Havey was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail.

Capt. George Snow, reserve officer, Air Corps, U. S. A., on his recent stay at the Mitchell Field, Long Island, had an opportunity to inspect the giant Sikorski tri-motor bi-plane, in which Capt. Rene Fonck, French ace, is going to attempt the flight from New York to Paris. Count Sikorski is at the head of a company, composed mostly of Russian refugees, which has been most successful in "building" these great commercial "ships." One new feature he describes is the reserve fuel tanks on the entering edge of the upper wings. The main tanks are back of the motors shaped in like the tail of the "ship," thus reducing resistance. Capt. Snow also had an opportunity of inspecting the great monoplane Josephine Ford which carried commander Byron E. Haskell, Postmaster General, to the North Pole.

WARREN SUPPER TONIGHT

Yesterday and today are the dates of the fair and supper given by the ladies of the Warren Congregational Church—the fair was held Wednesday and the supper is Thursday—today. The advertisement as printed in the Tuesday issue implied that both came off Aug. 11. This is to correct any possible misunderstanding and make it certain that none of our readers lose that fine supper for which these Congregational ladies are famous.

HO, FOR BELFAST!

Busy Burg Will Have Its Biggest Fair Next Week.

The 10th annual cattle show and fair of the New Belfast Fair will be held next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and the fine stretch of permanent highway which separates Rockland from that city will be tenanted by hundreds of motorists on their way to the big show.

The special free attractions on those two days will include a 16-horse drill by the Camp Paysock girls with a special performance by the trained horse Altrose. Wednesday night there will be fireworks, music and free acts; the fireworks being presented by Manager Dondero of Oakland Park.

The management promises that the midway will be the largest and most spectacular ever seen on the grounds—including a modern jumping horse, merry-go-round, chair plane, ferris wheel, Venetian swing and kiddie airplane.

You just can't help having a good time if you go to the New Belfast Fair.

This item from yesterday's Bangor Commercial will interest local theatre-goers: Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ott left Bangor this morning for Montreal, Quebec and other important Canadian cities. They will pass through this city again next week enroute to Boston, where they will start rehearsals for a new musical production Aug. 16th. On their return trip they will be accompanied by Miss Rita Howard, one of the premier dancers of Ned Weyburn's "Honeymoon Cruise," who will be one of the featured players of the production. Mrs. Fred Rice, formerly Mildred Dean of this city, who is the prima donna of the company, Mr. and Mrs. Ott are making their journey to Canada in a 1925 Chrysler 70.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dewar of Medford, Mass., are guests of Mrs. Wesley Post at Ingraham Hill.

Capt. Robert M. Lavender, port warden and marine surveyor of Boston, who has been visiting friends here returned home Tuesday by way of Steamship Belfast.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Barrow, and daughter and niece of West Springfield, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. E. Roy Smith of Medford, Mass., have been recent guests of Mrs. M. C. Hall, Ocean street.

A bouquet of such rare beauty as to stop the editorial machinery at The Courier-Gazette was brought to this office this morning by Mrs. Geneva Upham, Camden street and proved that the reports of the extraordinary nature of her gardens were not exaggerated.

NORTHPORT CAMPMETING

Will Be Held This Year Aug. 22-29. —Some Prominent Speakers—

The annual campmeeting of the Wesleyan Grove Association will take place at Northport, Aug. 22-29, with a daily program in the Auditorium.

The board of education is this season co-operating with the association and will send a number of speakers and religious workers here. These will include Dr. Lundquist, director of religious education of the Wilmington Conference, and Mrs. Lundhouse, who is an expert in the beginners' department. Alice Louise Brown of the conference will be assisted by Marian E. Haskell of the First Church of Bangor in the work among the young people. Mrs. Mills of the Sunday School board and Dr. Goddard of the Maine Conference and Dr. George Bean of the board of Home Missions will also be on the program.

Everything indicates one of the most successful and interesting camp-meetings in many years.

Sea bathing has been unusually popular during the last few weeks.

CRESCENT BEACH CHAT

Crescent Beach is having a banner season with each week exceeding its predecessor in festivity. The Inn is filled to capacity as are all the Inn cottages and a great majority of the private cottages are regular dwellers at the Beach. The dances are being very well patronized at the pavilion, over 200 cars being parked near by at last night's session. The new road from the corner affords great satisfaction especially as it was made possible through the efforts of the "Beach folks" themselves. Among the recent guests registering at the Inn are Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Hurd of New York City and H. A. O.

The coolest and most refreshing drink of all!

How grateful you will be for "Canada Dry" after a long, hot day! It cools! It tingles! It sparkles! It braces! It lifts you up mentally and physically.

For here is no ordinary ginger ale that owes its popularity simply to a pleasing flavor—but a real ginger ale, made from real Jamaica ginger.

Because of this, "Canada Dry" not only quenches thirst and brings a stimulating, invigorating respite from the heat, but is actually good for you.

Make it a point to try it soon—at your favorite club or hotel, at home, for those little parties on the lawn in the cool of a summer's evening—at dinner—when good friends drop in unexpectedly.

SPECIAL HOSTESS PACKAGE

A new way of packing "Canada Dry." Ideal for home use. Twelve bottles in a substantial carton. You will be especially glad to have it handy when friends drop in unexpectedly, for dinner, for the bedtime snack. This Special Hostess Package is sold by all "Canada Dry" dealers.

"CANADA DRY"

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Extract imported from Canada and bottled in the U. S. A. by Canada Dry Ginger Ale, Incorporated, 25 W. 43rd St., New York. In Canada, J. J. McLaughlin Limited, Ltd. 1926.

Arrangements are being made for the annual community fair, to be held Aug. 27 and 28. This will be bigger and better than ever. The booths will be in the hall which has recently been enlarged by an addition of 15 feet on the South side.

There will be a cattle show, horse pulling, poultry show, exhibits of fruit and vegetables, canned fruit and preserves and also a baby show.

Prizes will be awarded for the best exhibits. The prizes in the horse pulling will be as usual for the best pulling team in each class. There will be booths devoted to fancy work, aprons, cake and various other articles. Hot dogs, ice cream and tonics will be on sale. There will be a dance each night with music by Marshall's orchestra.

The farmers are nearly through haying and reports old fields light, new ground about an average crop.

The Saturday night dances in Community hall are attended by larger crowds than ever before as there is now ample floor space, two sets can form with ease.

GLAD TO SPREAD GOOD NEWS

Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cleveland, Ohio.—The friends of Mrs. Helen M. Kowalczyk of 6819 Hope Avenue, were glad to hear that she has regained her health. For quite some time Mrs. Kowalczyk was quite ill and it was impossible for her to work. She took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to build her up. After she had started taking it, she wrote to the Pinkham Company as follows: "I certainly boost Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I feel stronger already and sleep sounder. I am very glad to spread the good news of how it has helped me."

"Happy to Recommend Pinkham's," Detroit, Michigan—"I heard of this medicine through an advertisement in the 'Detroit News' and wrote to Mrs. Grace Gillem, whose letter was published. Then I started taking the Vegetable Compound and got the best results. I used the Sanative Wash, too. I am really happy if I can advise women to take your medicines."—Mrs. M. E. Murphy, 12163 Washburn Avenue, Detroit, Mich.

This is a dependable medicine.

Miss Mildred Graffam has returned from Farmington where she has been attending summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Spear of Waltham, Mass., and Wilson Piper of Caribou have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Piper this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Young of Gordon, Neb., and granddaughter Miss Naomi Newman of Colorado and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Young of Springfield, Mass., were recent guests of Mrs. Climenta J. Richards.

Mrs. E. C. Dunbar of Lowell, Mass., has been a guest at Mrs. K. M. Dunbar's this week.

Capt. and Mrs. Ernest Torrey motored to Quincy, Mass., Wednesday.

Miss Effie Roberts is taking a two weeks vacation from her duties in the office of St. Clair & Allen, Rockland.

Mrs. T. Hill Mansfield of Glen Ridge, N. J., was calling on friends in town recently. She has kindly given the Baptist Church their winter supply of coal, a much appreciated gift.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church are much pleased over the support given them at their fair in the Town Hall last week and wish to thank all who in anyway, helped to make it so much of a success. The gross returns were $200.00 with a small expense. The following ladies assisted at the several booths: Fancy work, Nellie Ballard and Lou Richards; food, Gertrude Havener, Medora Berry; candy, Frances Andrews, Lillian Keller; apron, Hettie Stanley, Mrs. Reed; ice cream, Annie Spear, Cassie Marshall, Annie Small; flowers, Mary Thurston; bargains, Arville Simmons; hot dogs and coffee, Cora Morrill, Amy Miller; groceries, Alvenus Cross, Morris Miller; demonstration, Josephine Paine; punch, Susie Berry; mysteries, Agnes Johnson.

Chester B. Pooley of Camden and Miss Frances Driscoll of Rockport were married at the Methodist parsonage Saturday.

The officers and teachers of the Methodist Sunday School met at the parsonage Wednesday evening for their monthly conference and study.

WALDOBORO

There was a very busy time at the rehearsal of the Paragon Band Monday night. It being the birthday of the leader, Gardner Wentworth, the boys decided a little surprise would be in order. Invited guests and members congratulated Mr. Wentworth and were well pleased with an evening's entertainment.

Tomorrow night's concert program will be: March, "Darlington," Alexander; overture, "Spirit of Progress," McFall; waltz, "Gipsy Glade," Creubling; fox trot, "Gipsy Dreams," McFall; overture, "Superba," Dalbey; fox trot, Selected; serenade, "A Night in June," King; march, "Across the Atlantic," Alexander; "Star Spangled Banner."

Lassie, the dog of little Ella Ryden, was run over just above her home on Main street last Monday afternoon. Everyone is very sorry for little Ella, who is a general favorite, in the loss of her pet.

The Ladies' Circle of the Baptist Church will hold their annual fair Aug. 20. Food and fancy articles will be for sale. There will be an entertainment in the evening.

The severe fire which swept through cut-down and underbrush to the old county road, caused much anxiety in town during the past week. In spite of enthusiastic volunteers the flames could not be controlled until the heavy showers Sunday. The house of Gardner Gross was destroyed.

Mrs. Helena M. Smith, Mrs. Mary G. Elkins and Mrs. Henry Butler have been guests of Mrs. John Walker in Thomaston.

Charles Morse of Lynn, Mass., has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Oster.

Charles W. Young of Wellesley, Mass., spent the weekend with his sister, Miss Edna M. Young.

Mrs. James Garvin of Sanford is the guest of her daughter Mrs. B. W. Mitchell.

A successful entertainment was given in Odd Fellows Hall last Wednesday evening for the benefit of Good Luck Rebekah Lodge. From the moment that the curtains drawn by the dainty Misses pages, Arline Anderson and Millicent Burnes, to the grand finale of the well acted Mock Marriage ceremony, every detail was carried out to perfection. The tableaux were effective, the dancing and drills exceptionally well done, the charades clever and the sketch, "Grandmother's Dream" lovely in costuming and lighting effects. Mrs. Florence Shuman made a realistic "Grandma" and she was ably supported by Mrs. Florence Grace, Mrs. Hattie Creamer, Miss Lucille Benner, Miss Gladys Flint, Miss Laura Whitcomb, Mrs. Gladys Coffin, Maxine Coffin, Miss Gladys Bailey, Ralph Benner, Clarence Benner, Mrs. Olive Crowell, Dorothy Crowell, Barbara and Evelyn Lovejoy, Agnes Grace, Shirley Burnes, Dorothy Creamer, Gwendolyn Creamer, Edith Perry and Laura Creamer. Miss Ada Winchester contributed much to the sketch by reading and Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Palmer, Miss Audrey Genthner, Fred A. Chute, Miss Frances Simmons and George Genthner with music. Others who added to the excellence of the program were Mrs. Annie Genthner, Mrs. Ethel Benner, Mrs. Alma Fitch, Walter Kaler, Floyd Benner, Miss Blanche Walter, Miss Anne Gay, Miss Lois Hagerman, Miss Janis Engley and Miss Vera Patterson. The Aggravators furnished an unusually good program of music between acts. Ice cream, cake and candy met with a ready sale in the dining room after the entertainment. About $65 was taken as the result of the affair. Much credit is due to the noble grand, Mrs. Gertrude Benner, the recording secretary, Mrs. Olive Crowell, and the capable assistants for the success of the entertainment.

The street dances by the Paragon Button Corporation Band are held every other Friday night, the next being due a week hence. Tomorrow night the band will give a concert beginning at 8 o'clock. Contracts have been closed for the band to play at the Lancaster, N. H., Fair with 23 men. It will be at Union Fair for the 19th consecutive season and has been engaged for the Central Maine Fair at Waterville.

Bangor woman tells how she saves work

Look! Soaked whiter than if scrubbed —no boiling either, and so safe

YOU couldn't rub things as snowy white as this new kind of soap soaks them!

Now the whole week's wash is done at home—in half the time—without scrubbing. Even without boiling—unless you like to. Rinso sterilizes, too!

And clothes last ever so much longer. Those grimy parts that are usually rubbed and rubbed until they wear threadbare—the hems and cuffs and edges—now soak white without a bit of hard rubbing!

You just can't imagine what a difference it makes to use Rinso instead of ordinary soap. You won't know until you try it.

Goodbye washboard!

Rinso is the amazing granulated soap that loosens dirt and stains. It's all you need on washday—no bar soaps, chips or powders. It gives thick, lasting suds even in hardest water.

All you do is soak, rinse—and there's your wash, sparkling and white, ready to hang on the line! Even the most soiled parts become snowy with just a rub or two between the fingers!

Saves clothes—saves hands

Contains no acids, bleaches or harmful chemicals; you could soak your finest white table cloth in Rinso for days without harm.

Saves your hands, too—they don't get red and worn.

Let Rinso do your next week's wash, and see for yourself why millions now use this quick, easy way. Just get Rinso from your grocer instead of ordinary soap. For economy and best results, follow the easy directions on package.

In washing machines, too

The makers of 28 leading washing machines recommend Rinso for safety, and for a whiter, brighter wash. Try it!

Mrs. Walter Tibbets, who with Mr. Tibbets motored from their home in Boston to spend the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Hannah Spear, was prevented by a severe attack of acute indigestion from returning home Sunday but is gaining nicely now.

Chi-Chi, the Royal Pekinese of Mrs. Elmer Locke of Portland, has been an honored guest of Mr. and Mrs. Seldon Robinson the past week and with stately dignity, baring a few growls, receives the homage of all callers.

WARREN SUPPER TONIGHT

Yesterday and today are the dates of the fair and supper given by the ladies of the Warren Congregational Church—the fair was held Wednesday and the supper is Thursday—today. The advertisement as printed in the Tuesday issue implied that both came off Aug. 11. This is to correct any possible misunderstanding and make it certain that none of our readers lose that fine supper for which these Congregational ladies are famous.
